BOT – 2 UNCG Police Department’s Student Rangers Program

Background Information

Through the Student Rangers Program, the UNCG Police Department offers part-time positions to students on a full-time or part-time basis. Once hired, students receive extensive training and are assigned to patrol specified zones on campus, keeping a high level of visibility among the student body and providing assistance with safety walks for students, faculty, and staff to and from residence halls and academic buildings. UNC Greensboro Chief of Police Paul Lester will give an overview of the program and Student Rangers will discuss their experiences.
