ABSTINENCE HOSTILE ENVIRONMENT

- College campuses have often been referred to as “abstinence hostile environments”
- Students in recovery face the same challenges as other students:
 - Academics, finances, work etc., and
 - difficulty being admitted due to the consequences of their previous substance use, potential challenges obtaining tuition assistance, and maintaining their recovery etc.

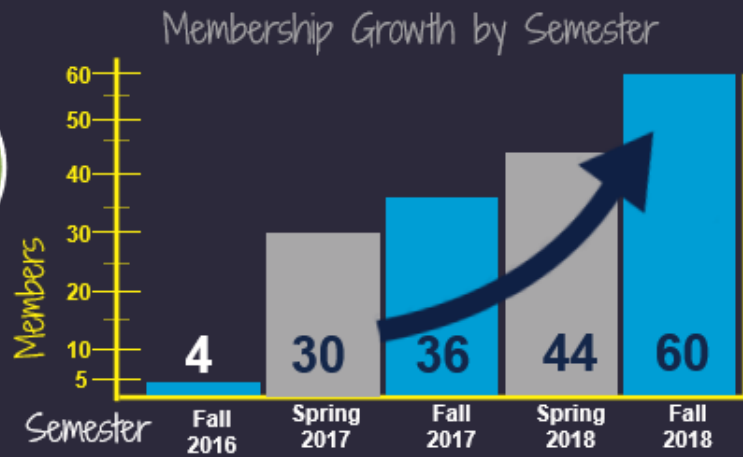

ADDICTION IS ABOUT PEOPLE

- 1.7 million full-time college students (18–22) reported current use of an illicit substance
 - 6.1% met the criteria for an alcohol use disorder
 - 1,220 UNC Greensboro students
 - 11.2% met the criteria for an illicit substance use disorder
 - 2,240 UNC Greensboro students
- Estimated 4% of students on campus are in recovery
 - 800 UNC Greensboro students

RECOVERY IS ABOUT PEOPLE

SRP's Mission is to create a recovery - minded community of empowerment , purpose , and inclusion , in which UNCG students in all phases of recovery can pursue their personal, professional, and academic goals for the purpose of enhancing personal wellness and contributions to the global community.
