EC – 1 Update from the Chancellor

Chancellor Gilliam gave a brief recap of Homecoming activities that took place October 4 and 5th. More than 800 registered alumni attended events on Friday October 4, followed by an even greater number of attendees on Saturday October 5.

Gilliam also updated the Committee on the impact of Hurricane Helene on UNCG students and the university's efforts to assist sister institutions in the Western North Carolina region. UNCG is working closely with the System Office on organizing support. Our team is mobilized and stands ready to be deployed, from mental health professionals to facilities workers. UNCG is taking in student athletes from UNC Asheville and encouraging campus community members who wish to donate to give directly to the NC Disaster Fund or to impacted campuses (UNCA, Western Carolina, Appalachian State). Donations can also be made to the university's Counseling Center, Minerva Rescue Grant, and Spartan Food Insecurity Fund.

UNCG has almost 700 students from the western region. The Division of Student Affairs has reached out directly to them and has utilized our student media platforms to share reminders of support resources.

Impacted students have gone to our Counseling Center and several have requested and received assistance from the SAFE Fund, which awards students up to $1,000 for one-time emergency needs. Additional requests for SAFE Fund assistance are expected as tuition and fee payment deadlines are approaching.

Gilliam discussed development of the university's new strategic plan. Trustees have received the draft plan. Strategic Plan Advisory Committee Chair Wade Maki and committee members continue to gather feedback from the campus through avenues such as campus-wide forums, forums for individual schools and colleges, and meetings with the Faculty and Staff Senates. Trustee feedback is encouraged, and several dates for opportunities for trustee input have been extended. Committee Chair Maki is also available for individual conversations with trustees.

Transition to Closed Session

Chair Hoyle announced that the final agenda item required discussion in closed session. He reminded Committee members that the only topic of conversation during the closed session would be agenda item EC – 2, for discussion only.
