

Academic Affairs Committee
November 11, 2025

---

Discussion Item

AAC – 1      Academic Affairs Update (Boyette)

Background Information

Provost Boyette will provide updates on personnel changes within the University Libraries, the ongoing federal government shutdown and its impacts on university operations, research highlights, and academic program reviews.

Attachment:

AAC - 1.1 Research and Engagement Highlights

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'J. Alan Boyette'.

---

J. Alan Boyette
Provost & Executive Vice Chancellor

UNCG Research and Engagement

Health and Science Research

NIH invests $3.66M in UNCG's research fight against sand fly transmitted diseases

Resilience in Education Research

Building the future of learning: The SERVE center's $11.3M research-driven impact on K-12 education

Global Recognition

40 UNCG faculty and researchers have been named as top 2% scholars in the world

TOP 2%
SCIENTISTS
LEADING MINDS IN SCIENCE

